EVERYTHING IN READINESS

For the Corn Festival
Tomorrow.

ONE THOUSAND PEOPLE

Expected to Attend the Coming Event.

Baseball Game in Afternoon and a Concert in the Evening by the Peoples' Band.

All arrangements for the Elks' corn festival, to be held at Lincoln Park Tuesday afternoon and evening, have been completed and those in charge say that if the weatherman is kind the day will be one of the greatest in the history of any local lodge. It is expected that more than 1,000 people will visit the park during the time that the festival is in progress.

The corn bake in itself will be a feature worth going miles to see. Today a force of men started at work digging a big pit which will be used in preparing the feast. This pit will be filled with boulders which are to be heated and used in baking the corn. Fully four cords of wood are to be burned in getting the stones to a proper temperature.

More than 300 invitations have been extended to Elks and their friends and it is thought that practically all will respond. Seventy-five bushels of corn have been ordered so that there will be ample provisions for all that have been invited.

The big event of the afternoon will be a base ball game between the married and single men of the lodge. The married men are under the leadership of Prosecuting Attorney John H. Clark and the single men are captained by Dick Mason. Here are the way the warriors will be arrayed:

Married Men—Fred Kraner, c; T. R. Allen and Fred Terpany, p; C. L. Allen or A. C. Holland 1b; J. A. Key, 2b; Robert Cheney, 3b; L. E. Starr, ss; T. M. Cunningham, lf; E. L. Brady, cf; John H. Clark, rf.

Single Men—Harry Elliott, c; Charles Carter, p; Edward Ault, 1b; Dick Mason, 2b; Ray Oswald, 3b; Fred Scherff, ss; Claude Walters, lf; Fred Armstrong, cf; G. H. Foster or Ernest Owens, rf.

J. H. Oatley has consented to umpire. The game will be called promptly at 2:30 o'clock and will be over in time for the big corn feast which starts at 5 o'clock.

In the evening there will be a concert by the Peoples' band. There will be raffles for ladies and gentlemen, with a fine silk umbrella as the ladies' prize and a meerschau pipe for the gentlemen. There will be a baby rick with a cigar for every time you hit a baby and there will be a wheel of fortune with boxes of candy as prizes. Then there will be pop corn and ice cream stands and other amusements to give the park the appearance of a typical fairgrounds.

WESLEY M. E. TENT MEETING

Large Crowd Attends Closing
Services

CHRISTIAN PERFECTION

Subject of Sermon by Rev.
E. T. Bowdle.

It is Estimated That Fifty People Have Been Converted During the Meetings.

What proved to be a most remarkable series of revival services were the tent meetings which were held under the auspices of Wesley M. E. church during the past ten days and which were brought to a close Sunday evening. The closing service was remarkable in many ways, the big altar erected in the tent being filled with seekers after salvation.

The tent, located at the corner of Wood and Mound streets, could not hold the people who turned out to attend the closing service, fully 300 being unable to gain admittance. The attendance at all of the meetings during the series was large and much good was accomplished. The estimated number of conversions is 50.

The closing sermon, given by the Lima evangelist, Rev. E. T. Bowdle, was a powerful discourse on the subject, "Christian Perfection," the text being taken from Matthew 5:38. The text reads, "Be ye therefore perfect even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect."

Many people, the evangelist said, read this text, shake their heads doubtfully and then walk away. They regard it as being impossible of fulfillment.

God does not require absolute perfection, the speaker said. Neither does he require angelic or Adamite perfection. The Christian perfection spoken of in the Bible is based on three points; namely, perfect love, perfect faith and perfect obedience.

The speaker said that people claim that it is hard to love God with all their hearts, yet they expect this kind of love from their wives. A man who buys a threshing machine or a reaper expects these machines to be perfect. The man who buys a horse or a cow expects these animals to be without flaws. Why should not God expect the people he creates to be as near perfect as is possible.

The service lasted until after 11 o'clock, the tent being crowded until the close. Rev. Mr. Bowdle has returned to his home in Lima to rest until his next series of meetings.

Rev. D. H. Bailey very interestingly addressed a large audience at Epworth church, Sunday evening, upon the theme "Shod for the promises of God to the tribe of Asher and took as his text Deuteronomy 33:25. "Thy Shoes Shall be Iron and Brass, and as the Days so Shall Thy Strength Be."

God desiring the tribe of Asher to be a conquering tribe was to favor it with a full equipment for a difficult journey. Mr. Bailey thought, after considering all other Way". Rev. Mr. Bailey considered organisms, man was most divinely equipped and so was expected to do great service in a difficult way. "Man was made to conquer and to be the all conqueror," said Mr. Bailey.

So, having a supreme equipment man must travel a difficult road and strive lest he fall. Not only must man be intellectually prepared for the difficulty but must be morally pure. The pastor thought that though Marion was above the average town one needed to have a very good moral preparation to succeed. All should accept Christ and be prepared for the conflicts, which beset us.

Two persons professed their faith and were taken into the church. Professor Edward Hipsher who is spending the summer in this city, presided at the organ.
